Pat,

We've done alot of crazy things together. Stage band wasn't all that exciting but did a few things afterwards. Don't forget the many times we played "gin" at your grandparents. We may have ~~our~~ differences but we always seem to stay together somehow. I hope that means we have a good friendship. I hope we have alot of fun this year like Jo's party, etc. Stay the way you are.

Lots of Love,
Nathan

out of Town

Rox,

I guess I should start from the very beginning -- but I don't know if I can remember too clearly that far back. What a relief to have someone OL know forever to talk to me in that crazy Cherokee hospital - Not the one on the hill! And then, what would I have done at kindergarten roundup? Probably would have screamed my head off on that bus ride. I guess I could say you were my security blanket. Then remember those spats we would have over Sharon? I guess we were really dumb to fight over people. In the lunch room there was always you to sit by - even if you did bring a crazy sack lunch - but at least the teachers couldn't shove anything down your throat. And in drivers-ed - thanks for putting up with me. We sure had great fun learn-walking - even though I copped out. Just think what we owe to the beans due to our beautiful dark tans? What would we have done wethout your ~~sweet~~ water? I'll never forget that last field - of course it will probably never forget us. How could it? We've got two more years to struggle through school - and then what? I'd rather not think about it. I'm looking forward to more years of fun and enjoyment - So don't let me down. Good luck to our friendship and to your future. And remember - great things come in little packages.

Rhonda

hope I write BIG! I don't hog up to much space

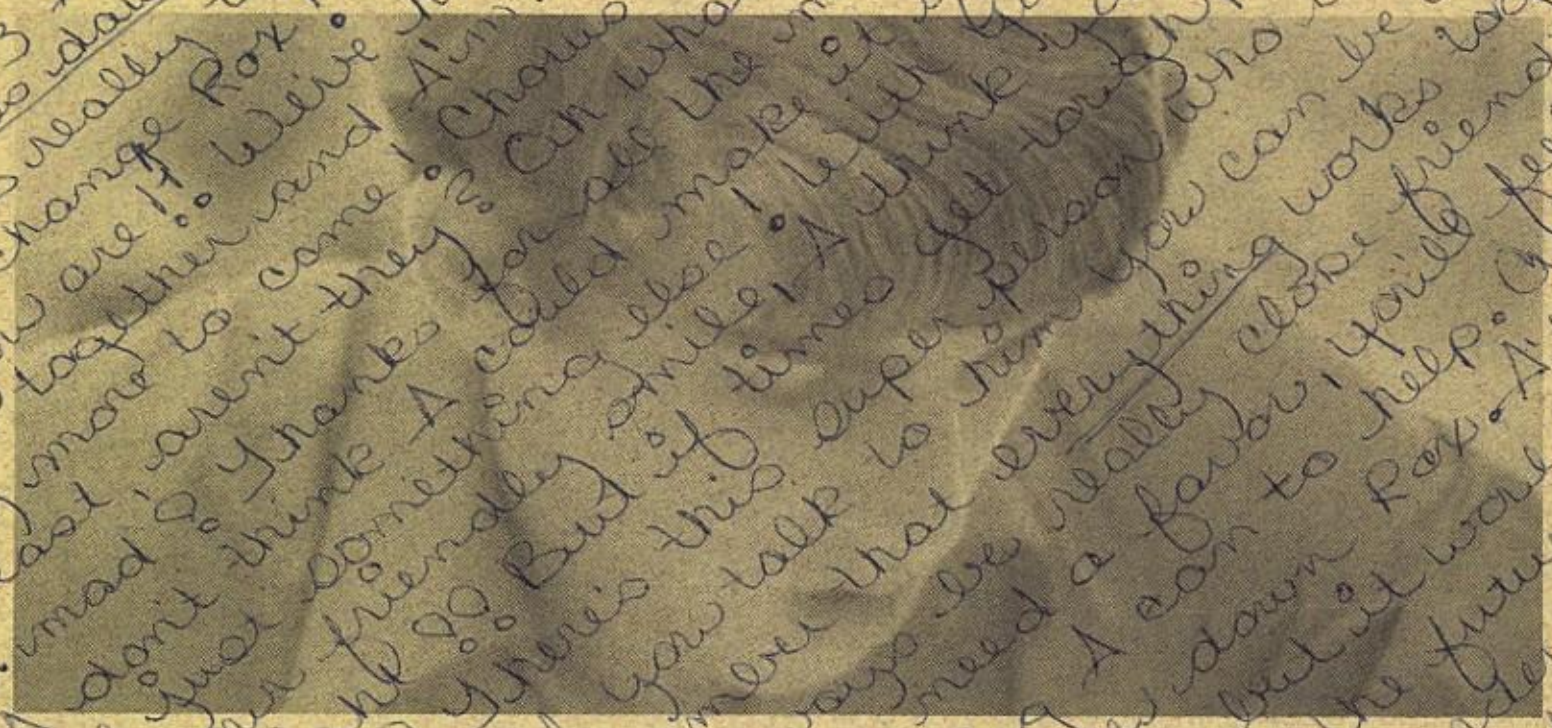
Rox!
(Otherwise known as Millie)
Well, what can I say! I'll start by telling you why I chose to write on this page! I'm writing these cuz I like the saying "Newness dawns every day in people"!! It's really true! But don't you ever change Rox! You are!! We've had some great times together and I'm sure that there are many more to come! Cheers and pretty fun times! I'm really a blast, aren't they? Can't wait to make more memories for all the world to see! Thanks for all the money you've loaned me! I'll be sure to pay you back! I promise! Uh, I mean I'll try not to take too long! And I hope you'll be very understanding and patient with me! I'm sure that you'll be very successful in whatever you do! I'm always here for you! Remember that you're very special, very much loved, and very much admired! Remember that things will get better! You've been a great friend and I'll always be there for you! Remember to keep your head up high and smile!!
P.S. Sorry I drew such crappy smiley faces but I tried!! Love you Rox! I can't wait to see what awesome things you do in the future!
Love,
Abby
(Pauling, of course)



Newness dawns every day in people

The faces are gone now
some will never return, they will go on
to meet new faces,
new puzzles,
new hopes....
But, they will never forget....

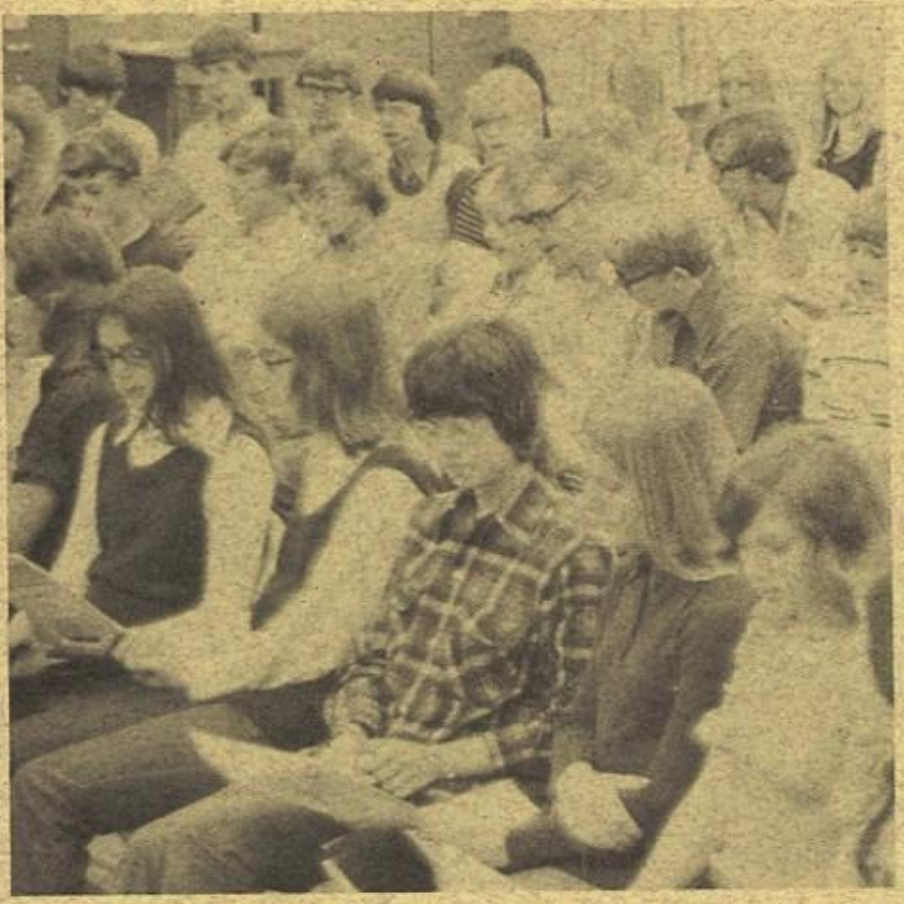
I Am Not Bound for One Corner, the Whole World Is My Native Land.



Which of us has known his brother?

Which of us has looked into his father's heart. . . which of us is not forever a stranger and alone?

Ror, Well we make it through speech class we'll be lucky. Of course chemistry is going to kill you too first. Right!! I really sympathize with you.
Well I sure let your glad you never have to relive the experience of sharing a locker with me Really I can't help it it always naturally I messed itself up!!
I'm glad I got to see you last of all
Sue your 9th year

I hope we can have some more good times together & relive got to help me with my speeches.
Remember but your self up!

AFS Carnival

Rox, (alias Miller)
Sorry I take so long at signing your annual, but as you can't you bet. are you as talented as not Mr. Miller, know guess why I'm writing on this page or in this terribly mixed up way, can you? Band is really a bore especially with someone like you

I didn't have you around to plan every time I see you. Maybe you've seen the greatest. I'm figure yours with do to something has that I don't know what I'd do if other for quite a while, this I better quit let you take over for a while. Right?

great & are you Seriously friend with a super personality

Although take them each pleasing to be terrific-that I can't attend it much longer. after one at it to have the date after then apologized all the time.

But what can I expect from a little underclassman like you. Besides that, your sure when I get out of here I'll miss you & all of your witty little sayings. But I will have a lot of memories of you, especially in band, (stage band- your terrible impromptu solos, marching band- knee lift, to Paint, & concert band - our best disciplined class -ha! ha!) and speech - the great five - but also of AFS, annual staff, P.E., and many other things.

I thought I'd be nice for a change & write nice on this page. I wouldn't want to strain your brain any more. Like I said, you're a terrific person so I'm sure your future will be great no matter what you do. Good luck to one of the best juniors around - you!

(Comedy like speech huh? Sorry for the confusion)

Keep smiling and think positive and you'll make it. I'm sure!

With Love, ← (shocking isn't it?)
Carol (alias Nester)

P.S. Hopefully I'll see you around next year. Ha! Ha!

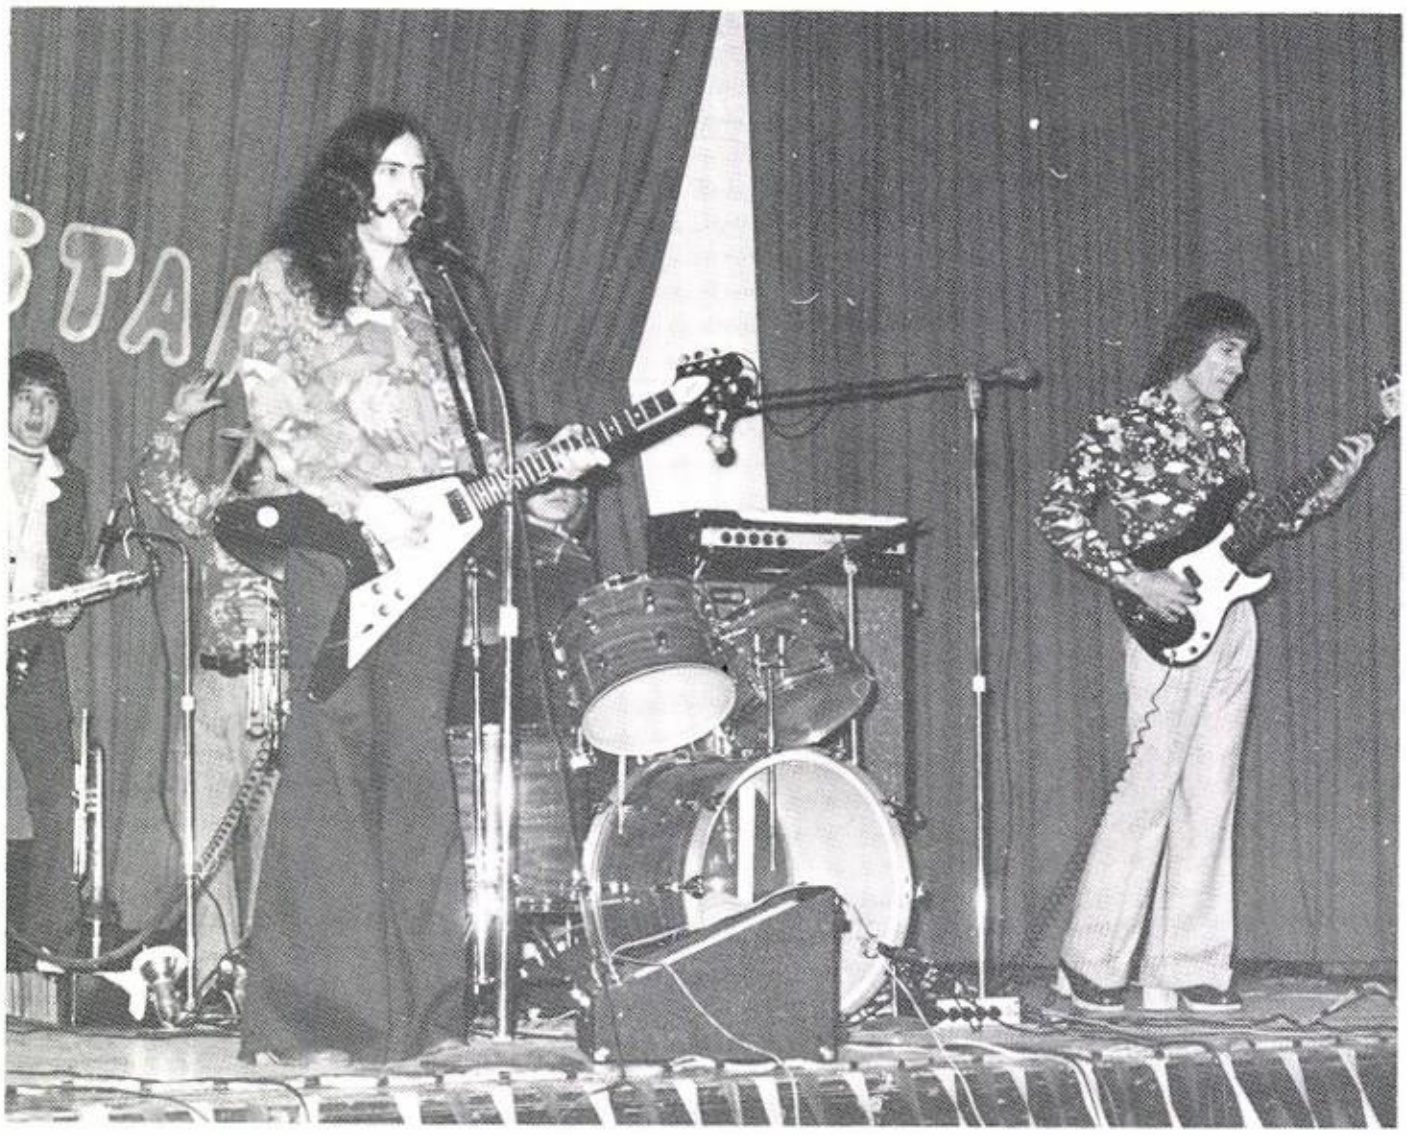
Prom 1973



Prom 1973 began with a banquet in the Zion Lutheran Gym at 6:30 P. M. with Mrs. Dawson as the speaker. Chris Holck read the class prophecies and Fred Schuknecht read the class wills. Following the banquet was the dance from 8:30 to 12:30 a. m. with music by "The Pages." The movie "Butterflies Are Free" began at 1:00 a. m. Concluding the night, the Lions Club provided a breakfast at Lange's Cafe.

Ron,
Decided I just had to write here! I don't know why. I guess because some of our best memories were here. Besides that's such a good picture down below. Who could pass it up? Ha! Ha! What a dude. Of course you could make sure that certain people would make that happen, right? As soon as we looked it over. We're so well liked! Them's the breaks! Thanks for being a good friend. You're the one that I usually talk out my grouches on. Right? Especially about somebody. Oh well! Thanks for listening and helping. Good thing that we have a lot of classes together to, otherwise I'd never pass! Yuck! Good thing for our 1st study hall too though we usually never do anything! Well,
Peace!
Love,
Sharon

Classes

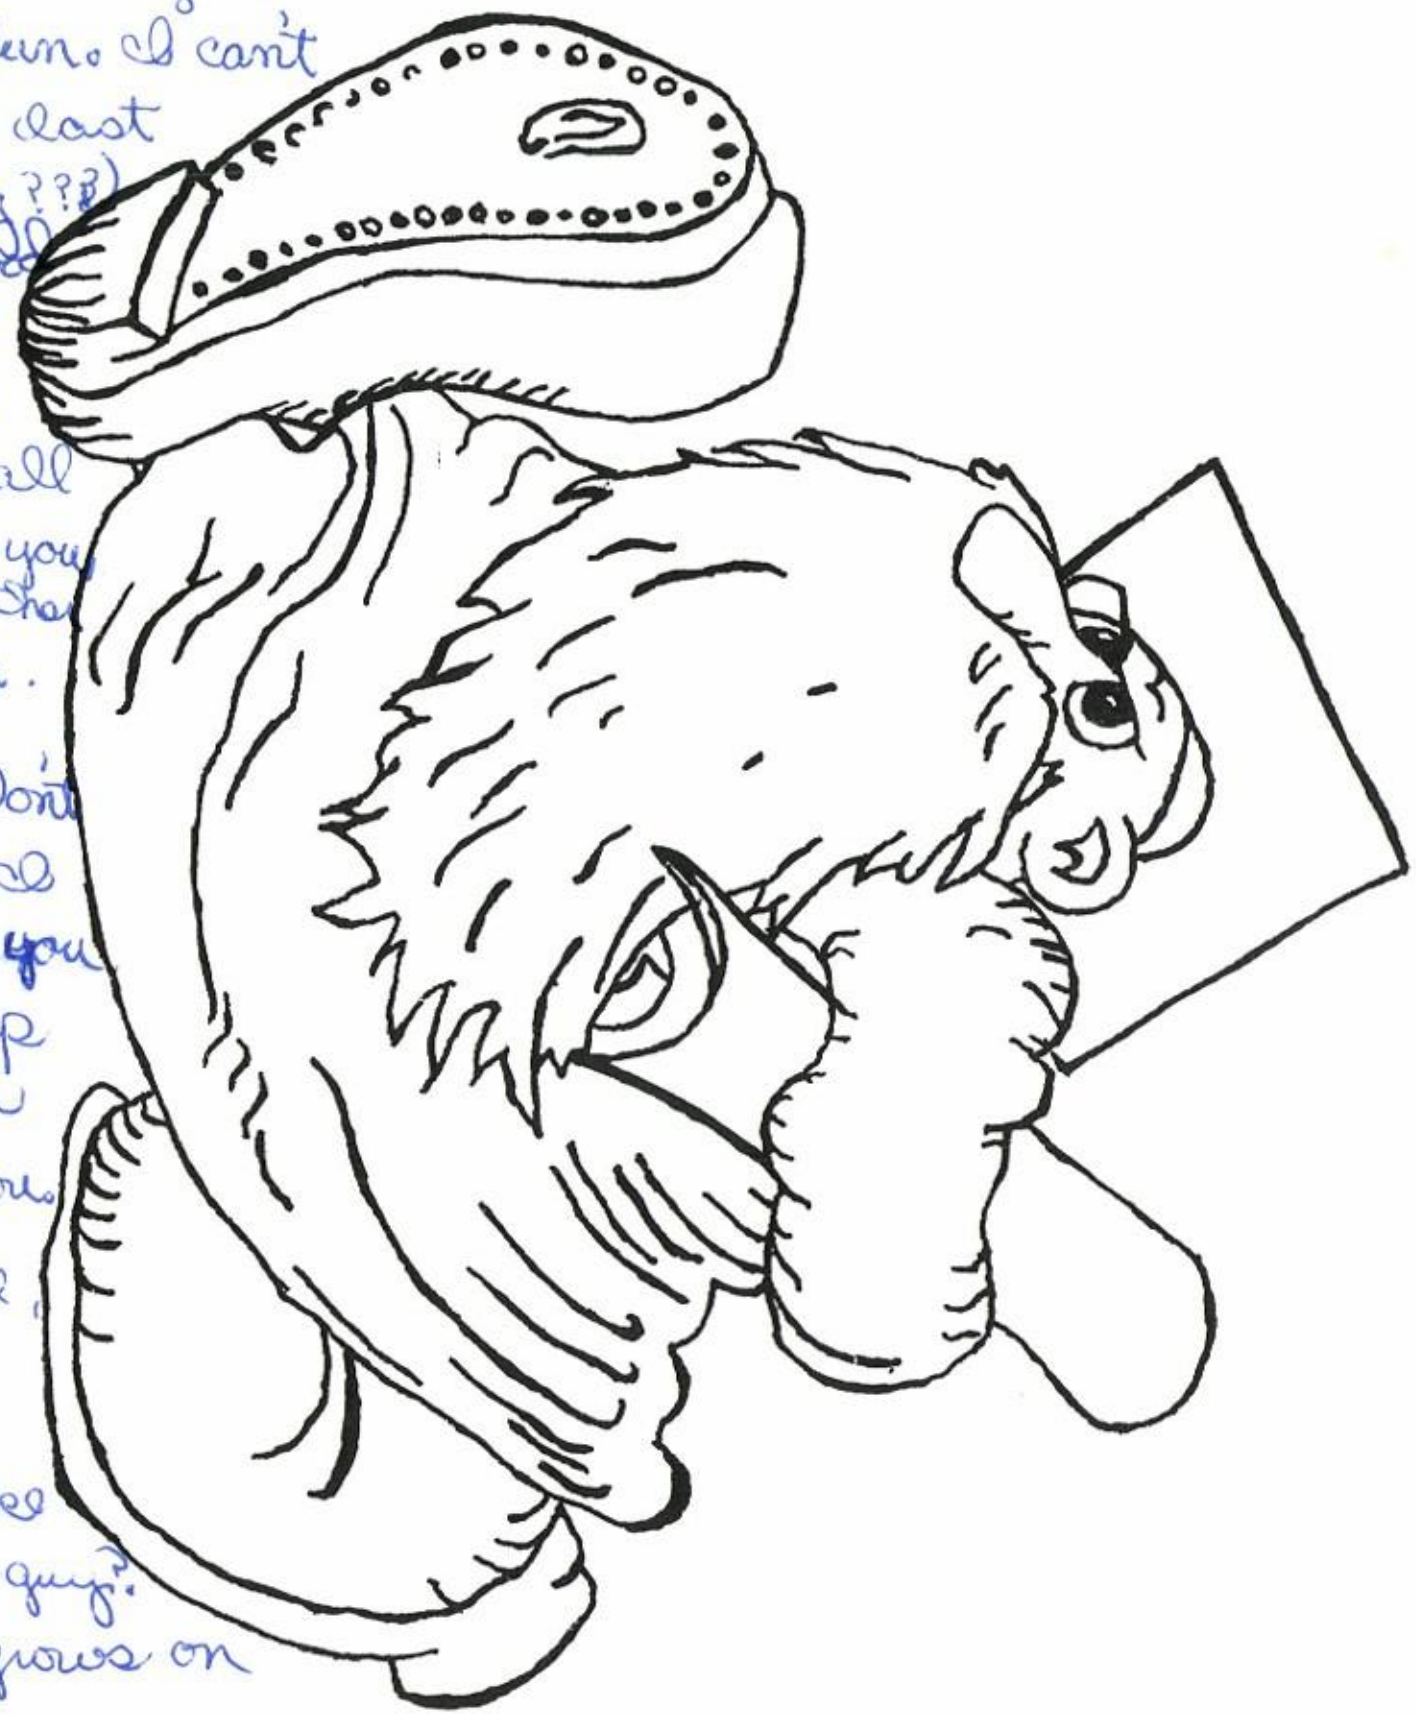
Rox,

Well, we've a lot together and all of it was been fun. I can't forget all the Biology last year (that was exciting ???) and Chemistry with good old Mr. D. again this year, and my party (that was crazy), and all the times Rhonda, Star, you and I have gotten together and had lots of fun. I think it could go on and on and on. Don't ever change because I liked you the way you are, a real nut. Keep smiling. Don't ever forget God loves you.

AFA

Just Me,

Jo



P.S. How do you like this weird-looking guy? If you let him he grows on ya.

You are going to go a long way, I just knew it. Good luck Miss Florida!!

We, the annual staff of 1973, wish to thank Mr. Bernard Jons, Mr. Grosvenor, Mr. Richard Fiddelke, and Dennis Mott for their many hours of work providing pictures for this year's annual.

Also to Miss Cullison, many thanks for providing helpful and needed hints during the past year.

Finally, thank you, the people of Paullina for sponsoring the various pages of the annual.

Roxi,

I only met you last year but it seems like we've been friends all our lives. We've had a lot of great times on that good ol' bus. Even if we were praying some of the time that he wouldn't drive so fast. You know you can easily fall out of your seat when you go at that dangerous speed of 3 m.ph. Maybe someday we can even buy him a pack of gum. I just love the way he chews it. Oh, that's right you told me to tell you what a privilege it was to write in your annual. Well, it really is. You're a really great friend.

Just Me,
Barb Puhrmann

Rox,

Well, I'll never forget the bus ride to and from school and making fun of Norman, also that cheerful good-morning (even if it was a few miles late sometimes) But, most of all, those crazy days out in the bean field! The littlest was the mightiest; your a dang hard worker (remember, no swearing the first round!) How about running into the corn field to get out of the rain or waiting for a couple of hours for a ride? Even if you have to get over on a tractor? ha, ha! At least got a good tan. Oh! How about loosing your water jug? Just keep your smile and your enthusiasm and I know you'll go along way because you are sure what you want and are an individual. You're a great cousin and friend so if you ever need somebody to lean on I'm always around.

Just me,

Steph

Rox,

Just think two years left! Well, we've had a few good laughs together.
Right! Especially at 20's party. We'll have to do that again sometime soon!
Don't forget good 'ol Wells and those driver's ed. days.
We sure had a lot of fun then. I hope we have a lot of fun our next two years together too! Your a great friend and I hope you keep that great personality of yours.

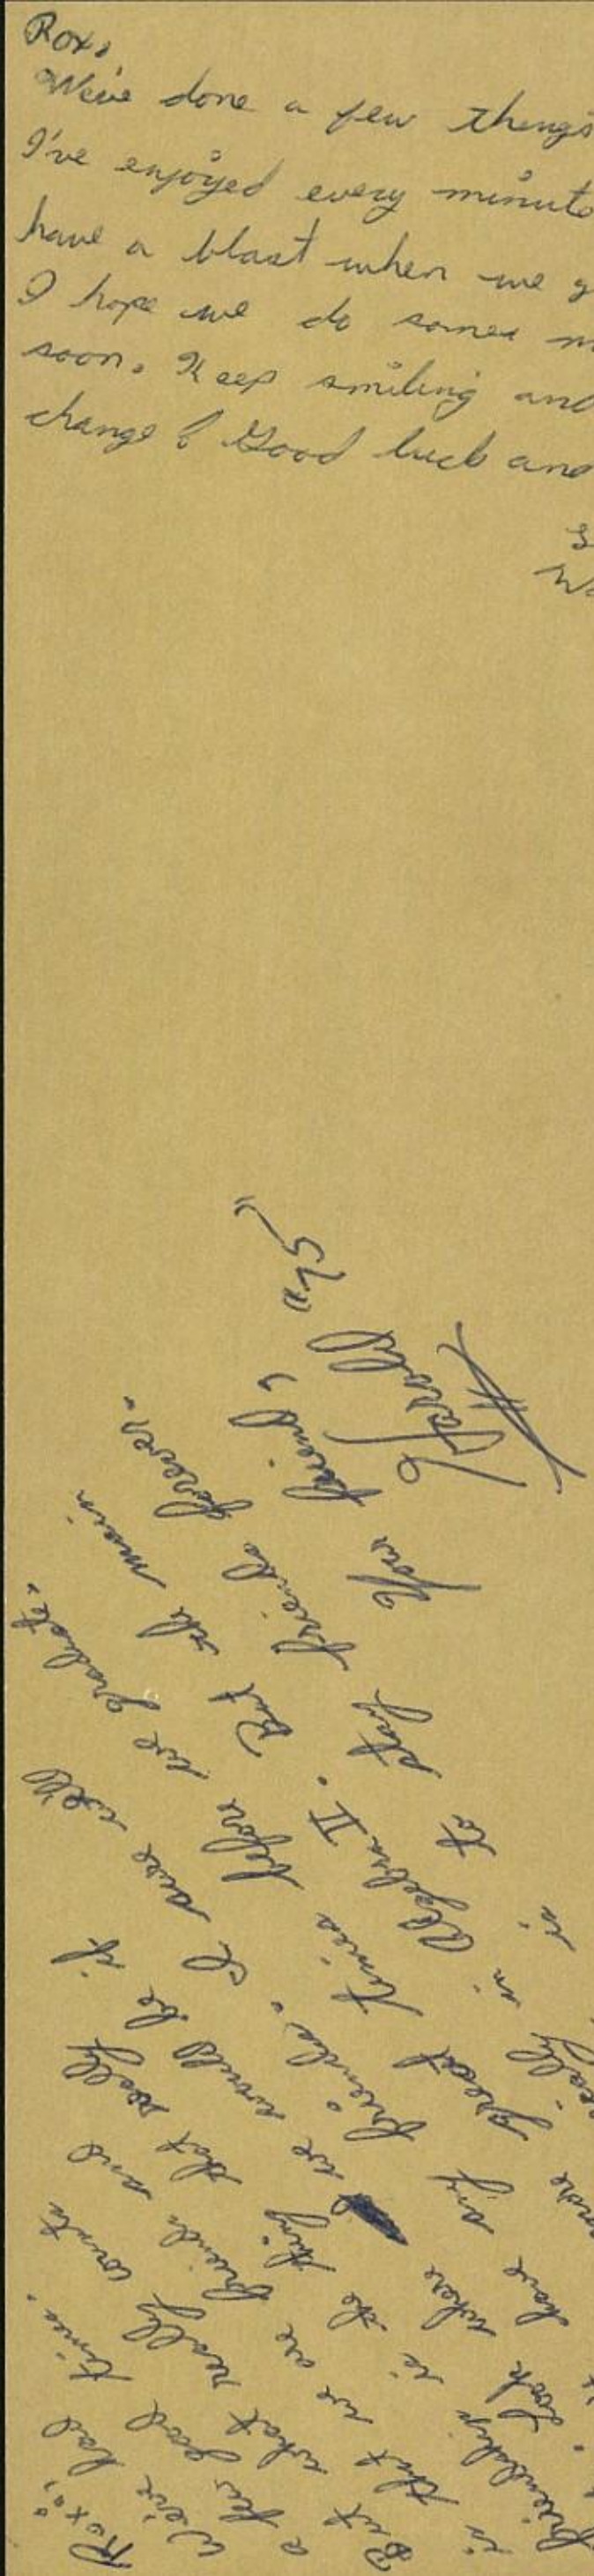
God Bless you a friend,
Always
Marcia

Dear,

I could write you about the fun times we had together. I remember the time we went camping and you got a little too close to the campfire. Or the time we went to the amusement park and you were too short to ride any of the rides. You threw a tantrum and refused to leave the park. I remember the time we went to the beach and you were too afraid to go in the water. You were afraid of the waves and the seaweed. You were afraid of everything. You were afraid of your own shadow. You were afraid of your own reflection in the mirror. You were afraid of your own breath. You were afraid of your own heartbeat. You were afraid of your own existence. You were afraid of your own life. You were afraid of your own death. You were afraid of your own mortality. You were afraid of your own humanity. You were afraid of your own soul. You were afraid of your own spirit. You were afraid of your own essence. You were afraid of your own being. You were afraid of your own self. You were afraid of your own identity. You were afraid of your own individuality. You were afraid of your own uniqueness. You were afraid of your own originality. You were afraid of your own creativity. You were afraid of your own imagination. You were afraid of your own intelligence. You were afraid of your own wisdom. You were afraid of your own knowledge. You were afraid of your own education. You were afraid of your own learning. You were afraid of your own growth. You were afraid of your own development. You were afraid of your own progress. You were afraid of your own success. You were afraid of your own failure. You were afraid of your own mistakes. You were afraid of your own regrets. You were afraid of your own guilt. You were afraid of your own shame. You were afraid of your own embarrassment. You were afraid of your own humiliation. You were afraid of your own pain. You were afraid of your own suffering. You were afraid of your own sorrow. You were afraid of your own grief. You were afraid of your own loss

Rox,

We've done a few things together and I've enjoyed every minute! We always have a blast when we get together. I hope we do some more stuff soon. Keep smiling and don't ever change! Good luck and God bless!


Love,
Wanda
